PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

*It won't matter if your turkey is undercooked or even burnt to a crisp.
It won't matter if your pumpkin pie is left untouched by all seventeen of your guests.
It won't matter if you eat so much you don't have to eat all day Friday or all day Saturday.
It won't matter if you are able to gather with your closest relatives or circumstances just don't allow that this year.*

What matter is this – Thanksgiving can remind us that being grateful is a choice. It is an invitation that God gives to each one of us. Scripture teaches us to “Give thanks in all circumstances.”

*Another way to understand that verse is, “Give thanks in the midst of all circumstances.”
What are you thankful for – not about this coming Thursday – but today? Right now. As we turn to God in gratitude, what words come to mind? Allow those words to fill your heart as you turn to worship the Lord our God.*

OPENING PRAYER

Lord of bounty and blessing, we come to you this day in gratitude for all that we have been given. We are grateful for the blessings and for the opportunities to be of service to others in your holy name. Bless each of us here, that we may become truly blessings to others. For we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

HYMN #367 Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

1. Come, ye thankful people, come; raise the song of harvest home. All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin. God, our Maker, doth provide for our wants to be supplied.
Come to God's own temple, come; raise the song of harvest home.
2. All the world is God's own field, fruit in thankful praise to yield, wheat and tares together sown, unto joy or sorrow grown. First the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear.
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.
3. For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take the harvest home; from each field shall in that day all offenses purge away; give the angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast, but the fruitful ears to store in God's garner evermore.
4. Even so, Lord, quickly come to thy final harvest home. Gather thou thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin, there forever purified, in thy presence to abide:
come, with all thine angels, come; raise the glorious harvest home!

*HYMN #37 Let All Things Now Living

1. Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us, by guiding us on to the end of our days.

God's banners are o'er us; pure light goes before us, a pillar of fire shining forth in the night: till shadows have vanished, all fearfulness banished, as forward we travel from light into light.

2. By law God enforces, the stars in their courses, the sun in its orbit obediently shine; the hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains, the depths of the ocean proclaim God divine. We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing; with glad adoration, a song let us raise, till all things now living unite in thanksgiving: to God in the highest, hosanna and praise!

SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON Luke 21: 7-19

SERMON Thanksgiving Into Hope

AFFIRMING OUR FAITH

It isn't easy to always give thanks to God. Sometimes life becomes boring – getting up, going to school or work, doing chores, goofing off. Nevertheless – there is meaning and possibility in every day.

Sometimes we just feel blah. We don't know the heights of gladness or the depths of agony. Nevertheless – there is tremendous and fascinating mystery in life and God is to glorify and enjoy.

We make so many stupid mistakes. Always doing and saying the wrong things. Nevertheless – God receives these things, exposes them to God's energies and offers us back new possibilities.]

I don't like to read about all the things happening in the world: killings and war and sorrow. Nevertheless – humankind is even now being redeemed. Eternity is united with the present moment and we are part of it. But I am just one person. It seems impossible for me to do anything. Nevertheless – God uses us to bring about eternal purposes.

God has come. The Word of God has been spoken. With amazement, ecstasy, and joy we are confronted by God.

Living is an act of faith, then. Living means knowing and participating in the pain and agony of life, the confusions, the disappointments and the frustrations, but saying "Nevertheless" – and giving thanks. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who is in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*HYMN #643 Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in whom this world rejoices; who, from our mothers' arms, hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us; and keep us in God's grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills in this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God, who reigns in highest heaven, to Father and to Son and Spirit now be given: the one eternal God, whom heaven and earth adore, the God who was, and is, and shall be evermore.
